WHY FIVE SEASONS ENTERTAINMENT IS THE WAY TO GO

Dear Mr Bruwer

Thank you for the opportunity to share with your potential new customers our experience in working with Five Seasons Entertainment.

I am a senior official working for a high profile Government Department. Our Department held an international conference in Cape Town, South Africa, during February 2009. Five Seasons Entertainment was approved as our service provider.

The conference was attended by approximately 100 senior government delegates and ministers from countries all over Africa and was hosted by our Department at a premier hotel in the V&A Waterfront. The conference was opened by the Deputy President of South Africa, Ms Baleke Mbete and received wide media coverage.

I am well acquainted with organizing conferences and do so on a regular basis. I understand the value of having the best possible entertainment for functions at these events. I further have a Director-General who is an absolute perfectionist and who is only ever satisfied with the very best. This challenges me, to constantly raise the bar when I arrange a conference or the entertainment for it.

Arranging a conference in Cape Town whilst your Department is located in Pretoria, poses its own fair share of logistical nightmares. Arranging great entertainment in this way is, well, virtually impossible, unless you end up using Five Seasons Entertainment.

From the outset, Mr David Bruwer who dealt with my enquiry impressed with his knowledge of the entertainment industry and its various genres. It was clear that he had dealt with international functions of this nature many times, which reassured me that I was in good hands.

Mr Bruwer listens attentively to the needs of clients and advises them with regard to the best solutions. Our Department hosted a Gala Dinner as well as a Farewell Cocktail function during the conference period. Mr Bruwer made recommendations with regard to the most appropriate

Artists for each of my functions, taking into account the tone of each function, who would be in attendance, as well as a host of other factors. It was clear that he knew the Artists he manages and their repertoire, inside out.

I gave specific instruction to Five Seasons Entertainment, to ensure that I have a full turn key service, including sound, lighting, stage etc and that is precisely what I got. Given the fact that I work with musicians, technicians and so forth regularly and the fact that I am a musician myself, I have to commend Five Seasons Entertainment for the fact that they use expert, knowledgeable technicians who rendered the best possible support to their Artists. What a pleasure to work with people who know what they are doing!

From speaking to the technical support teams, I learnt that the technical teams of Five Seasons Entertainment have provided lighting and technical support to some of the best international and local musicians. I have to say, it shows clearly in their work and their work ethic. The best however, is the fact that the two technical teams delivered precisely what I had envisaged for the two functions and this meant that our audience was treated to possibly the best entertainment they had ever had.

We used the services of Simply Smooth Jazz and Function Band for our Gala Dinner and Almost famous for our Cocktail Farewell function. I would highly recommend both of these Artists to anyone.

Ephron Maralack of Simply Smooth is mesmerizing and has the ability to transform any function into "an event". His team is absolutely fantastic in supporting him. Music doesn't get better than this!

Sean Nunan and the crew of Almost Famous, single handedly caused a riot at our Farewell Cocktail. Their music covered hit after hit and the passion and energy which this crew exudes when they perform, rubs off on you. Before you know, you will be dancing and singing at the top of your voice, to those well known party songs. (I still feel like singing: "Oh, what a night!")

Why use Five Seasons Entertainment? Because they deliver! Everytime! I will never have to find entertainment again. Five Seasons will do it for me. On budget, as per the brief and with the gusto to make it a blazing success!

In conclusion I can attribute the success of the Gala Dinner and Farewell Cocktail to the talent, passion and professionalism of the team and Artists at Five Seasons Entertainment. Thank you so much for making my functions such huge successes!!! Five Seasons, you're the best!
